Where can I find the Certificate of party affiliation?

I looked at the SOS Forms lists.

Pages 4-5 of the Qualifying the Voter Handbook:

NOTE

In a primary election, the presiding judge is given two lists of registered voters. The second list is given to the precinct chair after the polls are closed and is used to qualify participants in the precinct convention. The election judge of a primary election must make a notation next to the voter's name on the second list of registered voters, as well as the list that is returned to the voter registrar. [Sec. 172.1141] It should be noted that Section 174.022 of the Texas Election Code was amended by House Bill 3102 (2013) to provide that precinct conventions may not be held on primary election night, but on some other date as determined by rules of the state party. In such event, the presiding judge will be instructed of alternate delivery arrangements for the second list of registered voters.

Certificates of party affiliation in a primary election for those voters who do not have a voter registration certificate. [Sec. 162.004(c)]

NOTE

Because voters are no longer required to have their certificates, only their valid form of photo identification, you may be issuing a large number of party affiliation certificates.

Stanart encourages affected provisional voters to submit ID

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds the voters who did not provide proper photo identification when voting in the November 5th Election that Tuesday, November 12, is the deadline to provide their Photo ID to the Voter Registrar.

“While the number of voters who need to cure the Photo ID requirement is less than 100, we want to provide the opportunity for every voter’s vote to count. Department of Public Safety (DPS) personnel will be stationed in my office ready to help any voter who needs an Election Identification Certificate (EIC),” said County Clerk Stan Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the county. “For convenience, after getting your Election Identification Certificate, you can go downstairs and present the Photo ID to the Voter Registrar.”

The County Clerk’s Elections Office is located in the Harris County Administration building, 1001 Preston, 4th floor. Election Identification Certificates are available without charge to qualified Texas voters who do not already have an approved form of photo ID, which is required for voting in person.

“The number of provisional ballots cast due to voters not presenting proper photo identification was very small. Over a quarter million voters participated in the election. Out of those, there are less than 100 that still need to provide an acceptable form of Photo ID,” said Stanart. The Nov. 5th Election is the first state-wide election in which the photo ID requirements were in effect.

Voters are now required to provide one of the seven types of Photo IDs when voting in-person. The state approved photo identification for voting includes:

- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS

- Texas Concealed Handgun License issued by DPS
- United States Military Identification Card containing the person's photograph
- United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States Passport

With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate and some Military Identifications, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

"If you are one of the affected voters who need to submit proper identification to the Voter Registrar, I encourage you to do it as soon as possible to ensure your ballot can be counted," concluded Stanart. Requirements to apply for an EIC can be found at <http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/DriverLicense/electionID.htm>. DPS offices are closed on Veteran's Day, Monday, November 11th.

For more information, voters can call the Department of Public Safety at 512.424.2600 or the Harris County Clerk's Office at 713.755.6965.

Election Identification Certificates are available without charge to qualified Texas voters who do not already have an approved form of photo ID, which is required for voting in person.

"The number of provisional ballots cast due to voters not presenting proper photo identification was miniscule. Over a quarter million voters participated in the election. Out of those, only 105 failed to provide an acceptable form of Photo ID," said Stanart. The Nov. 5th Election is the first state-wide election in which the photo ID requirements were in effect.

Voters are now required to provide one of the seven types of Photo IDs when voting in-person. The state approved photo identification for voting includes:

- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
- Texas Concealed Handgun License issued by DPS
- United States Military Identification Card containing the person's photograph
- United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States Passport

With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate and some Military Identifications, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

"If you are one of the one-hundred-and-five voters that need to submit proper identification to the Voter Registrar, I encourage you to do it as soon as possible to ensure your ballot is taken into account," concluded Stanart. Requirements to apply for an EIC can be found at <http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/DriverLicense/electionID.htm>. DPS offices are closed on Veteran's Day.

For more information, voters can call the Department of Public Safety at 512.424.2600 or the Harris County Clerk's Office at 713.755.6965.

ARMY OF ELECTION WORKERS PREPARED FOR ELECTION DAY

County Clerk Stan Stanart Reminds Voters, "Bring your Photo ID to the poll."

Houston, TX – 4,500 Election Judges and Clerks are prepared to receive voters on Election Day, Tuesday, November 5, at the 775 locations throughout Harris County. This Election will be the first Election in which Photo ID will be implemented at the Election Day polls.

"In preparation for Election Day, poll workers have been trained on the new Photo ID requirements and are ready for voters to cast their ballots," said Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the county. "Election Day should go as smoothly as the Early Voting Period."

Early voting brought 109,370 voters to the polls, the largest number of early voters in an odd numbered November Election in the history of Harris County. Of those voters, there were very few provisional ballots cast due to voters not presenting proper photo identification. The unofficial Early Voting tally of current registered voters with ID issues shows six who presented expired/suspended TX DPS IDs, two who presented out of State IDs, and nine who did not present any photo ID. These voters and any from Election Day, will have until November 12th to present a valid Photo ID to the Voter Registrar, so that their ballot can be counted.

"As the Chief Election Official, I have great confidence in voters," expressed Stanart. "I am not surprised by voters being prepared to comply with the photo identification requirement."

Voters are now required to provide one of the seven types of Photo IDs when voting in-person. The state approved photo identification for voting includes:

- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS

With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate and some Military Identifications, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

"If you have not done so, I encourage you to go vote," concluded Stanart. "Be sure to bring your photo ID to the poll; and, remember, on Election Day, you have to vote at the precinct where you are registered to vote.

County Clerk Stan Stanart Reminds Voters, "Bring your Photo ID to the poll."

Houston, TX – 4,500 Election Judges and Clerks are prepared to receive voters on Election Day, Tuesday, November 5, at the 775 locations throughout Harris County. This Election will be the first Election in which Photo ID will be implemented at the Election Day polls.

"In preparation for Election Day, poll workers have been trained on the new Photo ID requirements and are ready for voters to cast their ballots," said Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the county. "Election Day should go as smoothly as the Early Voting Period."

Early voting brought 109,370 voters to the polls, the largest number of early voters in an odd numbered November Election in the history of Harris County. Of those voters, there were very few provisional ballots cast due to voters not presenting proper photo identification. The unofficial Early Voting tally of current registered voters with ID issues shows six who presented expired/suspended TX DPS IDs, two who presented out of State IDs, and nine who did not present any photo ID. These voters and any from Election Day, will have until November 12th to present a valid Photo ID to the Voter Registrar, so that their ballot can be counted.

"As the Chief Election Official, I have great confidence in voters," expressed Stanart. "I am not surprised by voters being prepared to comply with the photo identification requirement."

Voters are now required to provide one of the seven types of Photo IDs when voting in-person. The state approved photo identification for voting includes:

- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS

- Texas Concealed Handgun License issued by DPS
- United States Military Identification Card containing the person's photograph
- United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States Passport

With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate and some Military Identifications, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

"If you have not done so, I encourage you to go vote," concluded Stanart. "Be sure to bring your photo ID to the poll; and, remember, on Election Day, you have to vote at the precinct where you are registered to vote.
